MRS. MAURICE D. AITKINS

Of Flemingsburg, Dies in Lexington Hospital After Illness of Several Months—Was Former Resident of This City.

Mrs. Maurice D. Aitkins, of Flemingsburg, died in the St. Joseph's Hospital at Lexington yesterday afternoon after a several months' illness. Before her marriage Mrs. Aitkins was Miss Bertie Wells, of this city, and she has many friends here who learn of her death with much regret. She was a woman admired by all who knew her and she numbered her friends by the score.

She is survived by her husband, Dr. Maurice D. Aitkins, an infant son, and her mother, Mrs. Eliza J. Wells, all of Flemingsburg; also two brothers, Mr. Preston Wells, of Frankfort, and Mr. Harry Wells, of Greenfield, Miss. Funeral services will be held from her home in Flemingsburg Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in the Flemingsburg cemetery.

MARTIAL LAW

In Great Ports of Enemy Declared—Reports Say Strike in Germany Are Still Spreading Widely—Hun Papers Say Outbreak on Wane and Workmen Return to Labors.

Declaration of martial law in the great ports of Hamburg and Bremen and lack of definite news concerning the progress of the strike movement in Germany indicate the possibility that the authorities have taken stern measures to deal with the discontented workmen. Related reports, however, show that the movement has spread widely since Monday. Some correspondents in Holland believe that the situation has grown worse, owing to the efforts of the German Government to minimize the importance of the strike and the scarcity of news.

While a report from Copenhagen says that all the Socialist leaders have been summoned to Berlin to discuss political questions, advices received in Amsterdam are to the effect that Chancellor von Hertling, following the example of Minister of the Interior Waltraff, refused to see a strikers' delegation.

In Berlin there has been a fatal clash between the strikers and the police and minor disturbances are reported to have occurred in other sections, as well as in the suburbs, of the capital. The Berlin press says the movement in Berlin has reached a climax and that it is losing its effectiveness.

Reports received at Amsterdam from other industrial sections say that the strike is not getting full support. More than 700,000 workers have been reported on strike in Berlin. There are reports of a new strike in the Dortmund mining district and in Dantsig and Munich, while it is said that the strikers in Nuremberg, Bavaria, have returned to their tasks.

Mr. Charles Downing, who has been attending State University at Lexington, is visiting his parents of the county.

BOOTLEGGERS CAPTURED

Walter Lewis, Colored, and Henry Gill Arrested Yesterday Afternoon By Chief of Police Ort and Officer Stewart—Had Large Amount of Whiskey in Their Possession.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort and Officer A. G. Stewart late yesterday afternoon arrested Walter Lewis, colored, and Henry Gill, both of this city, on a charge of bootlegging. Lewis and Gill have been under suspicion for some time and have been closely watched for the past several weeks. Yesterday morning the two men went to Lexington and thought they would escape the vigilance of the local officers by getting off the train at Summit Station, a short distance from this city.

Iko McAllister, confederate of Lewis, secured a buggy at a local livery barn yesterday afternoon and started out the Fleming pike. Soon after Thomas Dryden, Gill's partner, took the same trail in another buggy.

Chief of Police Ort and Officer Stewart followed soon after in an automobile and met the four men returning to this city. Chief Ort stopped the buggy in which Lewis and McAllister were riding and placed both under arrest. Officer Stewart went to the other buggy to arrest the occupants. Dryden jumped from the vehicle and made his escape but Gill was arrested.

Both Gill and Lewis had a good supply of wet goods in their possession. The men will be given a hearing in Police Court this afternoon.

PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

For District Convention of Grand Lodge of Oddfellows Here Next Week—Large Number of Delegates to be Present.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the district meeting of the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows which will be held in this city next Friday at the Ringgold Temple, on Market street, has about completed its plans for entertaining the visiting brothers and no gains have been spared to make it one of the biggest of the kind ever held here.

Invitations have been sent to all lodges in the district and it is expected that several hundred will be in attendance. The following splendid program has been announced by the program committee:

Supper—6 o'clock.

Meeting of Grand Lodge 7 o'clock—Hon. Beckham Overstreet, Grand Master.

Subordinate Lodge Meeting—R. M. Galtner, Noble Grand.

Address of Welcome on Behalf of DeKalb and Ringgold Lodges, Past Grand Master Allen D. Cole.

Response—Grand Master Beckham Overstreet.

Responses—By visiting Brethren.

Good of the Order—Grand Secretary, R. G. Elliott.

Conferring Initiatory Degree.

EXIT GERMAN MEASLES:

IT'S LIBERTY MEASLES

Camp Dix, N. J., February 1—Contending that it sounds unpatriotic to have German measles, the soldiers at the cantonment here who are suffering from the much-abused malady have started a movement to change the name of the disease to "Liberty measles." Camp surgeons who have heard the gibes and jokes aimed at their patients are so sympathetic, it was said, they might make an appeal to Washington to have a new brand of measles officially designated.

Amy King, public stenographer, office of County Judge, Court street. Work done promptly.

APPEAL MADE

To Typists and Stenographers to Assist in Food Conservation Work.

The State Food Conservation Headquarters has sent to Mason county two orders that require an equipped office and office force to carry out. There is not one cent of appropriation for this Food Conservation work. It is all voluntary service.

There is great need of the assistance of stenographers and typists—especially typists.

In registering Monday for voluntary service, it is hoped some stenographers and typists will register for an hour or two a day until these orders from State Headquarters are carried out.

It was emphasized at the recent Louisville war meeting that in the present crisis Food Conservation takes precedence of every other war service—since men must eat to live as well as to fight.

Germany four-fifths feeds herself. Our allies even in normal times only one-fifth feed themselves. They look to us for food or they must go under and leave us to fight it out alone or make an ignoble peace.

Come help where your help is most needed. Make it known to the Chairman of Food Conservation if you are willing to help with this work. Here is a chance to do your bit to win the war and help keep up Mason county's record for excellence in war service.

HEATLESS MONDAYS MAY BE ABANDONED

Abandonment of the heatless Monday program was considered yesterday by Fuel Administrator Gartside and Director of Railroads McAdoo. It was announced, however, that the closing order would remain in effect next Monday, but that on Tuesday a conference would be held to determine whether it would be rescinded before Monday, February 11.

COUNCIL MEETS MONDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council will be held next Monday night. One of the matters to come before the body at that time will be the election of a new matron, owing to the death of the present matron, Mrs. James L. Crane.

KELLMAN PLACED UNDER ARREST

James Kellman, indicated by the Mason county grand jury in December on a charge of carrying away personal property belonging to another, was arrested on Carmel street last night by Officer W. A. Tolle and placed in jail.

HOUSE MEMBERS TO MAKE INQUIRY

Frankfort, Ky., February 1—After the formal opening of the House, an invitation was extended to Lieut. Paul Perigord to address a joint meeting of the Assembly at 2 o'clock February 21.

As a result of the report of State Inspector and Examiner Sewell advising the members of the House that they are drawing money illegally when they draw for holidays and Sundays and days they do not actually work, Representative Rizzo requested that the House ask the Attorney General for an opinion as to their rights as salaries.

The special meetings at First Presbyterian Church will be postponed to February 11, on account of the severe weather.

OUR GROWTH

Government experts estimate that the population of continental United States, which is to say the main body of the country, excluding our island possessions, on January 1, was 105,006,000. That was an increase of 1,709,000 over January 1, 1917. And it's interesting to note, in passing, that we might figure about 700,000 of that increase as young men coming of military age during the year. At any rate, that's about the extent of our annual military increment.

Also, on January 1, we had a general stock of money amounting to $6,256,198,000, an increase of $1,244,153,000 over the previous New Year's day.

Our cash actually in circulation was $5,120,425,000. That is, we had $48.76 apiece in our pockets and sugar bowls and hose, exactly $5.76 more than we had a year ago.

All of which contributes to the general impression that the United States is growing. The big population increase was almost wholly native, and therefore natural and inevitable growth. In fact, the migration balance probably went against us—more people left the country than entered it. The money increase represents, likewise, natural and inevitable earnings.

Nothing can keep this country from growing, in people and in wealth, and in whatever other elements go to the making of a great nation. Just remember that on January 1, 1870, there were only 48,000,000 of us, and we only had $16.92 apiece in circulation. And then guess how many people and how much active cash we'll have, say, on January 1, 1950.

As for our total national wealth, nobody knows how much it is. The only thing certain is that it's over $200,000,000, more than twice as much as the wealth of any other nation on earth, and growing faster than that of any other nation.

Our population is the greatest homogenous population on earth—that is, speaking the same language and having the same civilization—and is increasing faster than any other.

It doesn't demand any unusual prophetic power to foretell which is going to be the foremost nation of the future. Heretofore we have played a comparatively small part in the world's affairs. We are just coming into our heritage, just getting our stride as leader of modern civilization. Today our moral and spiritual weight is as impressive as our weight of man-power and material resources. The rest of the twentieth century is ours.

GARDNER—AN APPRECIATION

Hon. Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio—"To the country Gardner's taking off, particularly at this time, is a loss of monumental proportions, if not one entirely irreparable. Putting aside all question of his proved usefulness in many legislative fields, he had in the last years so made himself the very cornerstone in Congress of the structure of national military preparedness that we shall search in vain, I fear, for one to fill his place. Where shall we find another with a knowledge of military technique so complete, an energy so vast, a purpose to force home the truth so indelible?"

His voice was the first raised in Congress for preparedness without reserve and without equivocation. Unfortunately, for many months it was a "vox clamantis in deserto" and fell unheeded upon the ears of men in high places. Where now, though, is the man who will deny that had greater heed been paid to his warnings and action founded upon them this country would be playing a far more active and effective part in the war, that our ultimate cost in blood and treasure would have been infinitely less and the day of victory far advanced? . . . . . When the history of these times is written, when the services of men to the American Nation in this, its time of greatest need, and their contribution to the ultimate victory which we will, must, and shall win, are duly weighed and appraised by posterity, I predict with perfect confidence that high upon the roll of honor will be written the name of Augustus Peabody Gardner, statesman, patriot, and gallant gentleman.

THE BAR CARRIES ON

The voluntary, free-of-charge services of the lawyers of the land have made the taking of the draft questionnaire a comparatively easy matter. This work has been done, not merely by the young practitioner desirous of extending his acquaintance but also by most of the older members of the bar to whom the time spent in this duty has been a real loss of professional income. A larger measure of concerted voluntary service has hardly ever been rendered in any cause. The legal fraternity has earned the thanks of every community, where, but for its assistance, the registrants would have had a hard time of it.

AMERICAN SUGAR SENT TO FRANCE

American Price Rigidly Regulated by United States Food Administration.

CONSUMERS HERE PAY 9c.

Sugar Cost 35 Cents a Pound During Civil War—Refiners' Profits Now Curtailed.

Sugar is selling today throughout America at from 8 1/2 to 9 cents a pound to the consumer, even though there is a world shortage which has reduced this nation's sugar allotment to 70 per cent. of normal.

Through the efforts of the United States food administration the sugar market has been regulated as far as the producer, refiner and wholesaler is concerned. The food administration has no power to regulate retail prices except by public opinion. Even though more than 85,000 tons of sugar have been shipped to France in the last four months the retail price of sugar is around 8 to 9 cents. He should sell this sugar at 8 1/2 to 9 cents, the food administration believes, and asks the American housewife to pay no more than this amount.

Last August when the food administration was organized the price of sugar rose suddenly to 11 cents a pound. During the Civil War sugar cost the consumer 35 cents a pound. By regulation of the sugar market and reducing the price to 8 1/2 and 9 cents and keeping it from advancing to 20 cents the food administration has saved the American public at least $180,000,000 in four months, according to a statement made by Herbert Hoover the other day.

"It is our stern duty to feed the allies, to maintain their health and strength at any cost to ourselves," Mr. Hoover declared. "There has not been, nor will be as we see it, enough sugar for even their present meagre and depressing ration unless they send ships to remote markets for it. If we in our greed and gluttony force them either to further reduce their ration or to send these ships we will have done damage to our abilities to win this war."

"If we send the ships to Java for 250,000 tons of sugar next year we will have necessitated the employment of eleven extra ships for one year. These ships—if used in transporting troops—would take 150,000 to 200,000 men to France."

Reason for World Shortage. As Mr. Hoover pointed out, the United States, Canada and England were sugar importing countries before the war, while France and Italy were very nearly self supporting. The main sources of the world's sugar supply was Germany and neighboring powers, the West Indies and the East Indies.

German sugar is no longer available as it is used entirely in Germany, which also absorbs sugar of surrounding countries.

England can no longer buy 1,400,000 long tons of sugar each year from Germany. The French sugar production has dropped from 750,000 to 210,000 tons. The Italian production has fallen from 210,000 tons to 75,000 tons. Thus three countries were thrown upon East and West Indian sources for 1,025,000 tons annually to maintain their normal consumption.

Because of the world's shipping shortage the allied nations started drawing on the West Indies for sugar; East Indian sugar took three times the number of ships, since the distance was three times as great. Suddenly the west was called on to furnish and did furnish 1,420,000 tons of sugar to Europe when 300,000 tons a year was the pre-war demand. The allies had drawn from Java 400,000 tons before the shipping situation became acute.

"In spite of these shipments," Mr. Hoover stated the other day, "the English government in August reduced the household sugar ration to a basis of 24 pounds per annum per capita. And in September the French government reduced their household ration to 13 2-10 pounds a year, or a hit over 1 pound of sugar a month. Even this meagre ration could not be filled by the French government. It was found early in the fall. America was then asked for 100,000 tons of sugar and succeeded in sending 85,000 tons by December 1. The French request was granted because the American household consumption was then at least 55 pounds per person, and it was considered the duty of maintaining the French morale made our course clear."

Today the sugar situation may be summarized by stating that if America will reduce its sugar consumption 10 to 15 per cent. this nation will be able to send 200,000 more soldiers to France.

Sugar today sells at seaboard refineries at $7.25 a hundred pounds. The wholesale grocer has agreed to limit his profit to 25 cents a hundred plus freight, and the retail grocer is supposed to take no more than 50 cents a hundred pounds profit. This regulation was made by the food administration, which now asks the housewife to reduce sugar consumption as much as possible, using other sweeteners, and also reminds her that she should pay no more than 9 cents a pound for sugar.

Control of Cane Refiners' Profits. "Immediately upon the establishment of the food administration," Mr. Hoover said, "an examination was made of the costs and profits of refining and it was finally determined that the spread between the cost of raw and the sale of refined cane sugar should be limited to $1.30 per hundred pounds. The pre-war differential had averaged about 85 cents and increased costs were found to have been imposed by the war in increased cost of refining, losses, cost of bags, labor, insurance, interest and other things, rather more than cover the difference. After prolonged negotiations the refiners were placed under agreement establishing these limits on October 1, and anything over this amount to be agreed extortionate under the law.

"In the course of these investigations it was found by canvass of the Cuban producers that their sugar had, during the first nine months of the year, sold for an average of about $4.24 per hundred f. o. b. Cuba, to which duty and freight added to the refiners' cost amount to about $5.08 per hundred. The average sale price of granulated by various refiners, according to our investigation, was about $7.50 per hundred, or a differential of $1.94.

"In reducing the differential to $1.30 there was a saving to the public of 54 cents per hundred. Had such a differential been in use from the 1st of January, 1917, the public would have saved in the first nine months of the year about $24,800,000."

Next Year. With a view to more efficient organization of the trade in imported sugars next year two committees have been formed by the food administration:

1. A committee comprising representatives of all of the elements of American cane refining groups. The principal duty of this committee is to divide the sugar imports pro rata to their various capacities and see that absolute justice is done to every refiner.

2. A committee comprising three representatives of the English, French and Italian governments; two representatives of the American refiners, with a member of the food administration. Only two of the committee have arrived from Europe, but they represent the allied governments. The duties of this committee are to determine the most economical sources from a transport point of view of all the allies to arrange transport at uniform rates, to distribute the foreign sugar between the United States and allies, subject to the approval of the American, English, French and Italian governments.

This committee, while holding strong views as to the price to be paid for Cuban sugar, has not had the final voice. This voice has rested in the governments concerned, together with the Cuban government, and I wish to state emphatically that all of the gentlemen concerned as good commercial men have endeavored with the utmost patience and skill to secure a lower price, and their persistence has reduced Cuban demands by 15 cents per hundred. The price agreed upon is about $4.00 per hundred pounds, f. o. b. Cuba, or equal to about $6 duty paid New York.

"This price should eventually,"

Mr. Hoover said, "to about $7.30 per hundred for refined sugar from the refiners at seaboard points or should place sugar in the hands of the consumer at from 8 1/2 to 9 cents per pound, depending upon locality and conditions of trade, or at from 1 to 2 cents below the prices of August last and from one-half to a cent per pound cheaper than today.

"There is now an elimination of speculation, extortionate profits, and in the refining alone the American people will save over $25,000,000 of the refining charges last year. A part of these savings goes to the Cuban, Hawaiian, Porto Rican and Louisiana producer and part to the consumer.

"Appeals to prejudice against the food administration have been made because the Cuban price is 34 cents above that of 1917. It is said in effect that the Cubans are at our mercy; that we could get sugar at a cent lower. We made exhaustive study of the cost of producing sugar in Cuba last year through our own agents in Cuba, and we find it averages $3.50, while many producers are at a higher level. We found that an average profit of at least a cent per pound was necessary in order to maintain and stimulate production or that a minimum price of $4.37 was necessary, and even this would stifle some producers.

"The price ultimately agreed was 23 cents above these figures, or about one-fifth of a cent per pound to the American consumer, and more than this amount has been saved by our reduction in refiners' profits. If we wish to stifle production in Cuba we could take that course just at the time of all times in our history when we want production for ourselves and the allies. Further than that, the state department will assure you that such a course would produce disturbances in Cuba and destroy even our present supplies, but beyond all these material reasons is one of human justice. This great country has no right by the might of its position to strangle Cuba.

"Therefore there is no imposition upon the American public. Charges have been made before this committee that Mr. Rolph endeavored to benefit the California refinery of which he was manager by this 34 cent increase in Cuban price. Mr. Rolph did not fix the price. It does raise the price to the Hawaiian farmer about that amount. It does not raise the profit of the California refinery, because their charge for refining is, like all other refiners, limited to $1.30 per hundred pounds, plus the freight differential on the established custom of the trade.

"Mr. Rolph has not one penny of interest in that refinery."

VALUABLE ADVICE Mayville Citizens Should Profit By The Following Statement.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used by this Mayville resident.

Their merit was shown—the story told.

Now comes further evidence.

The testimony is confirmed.

The remedy was tested—the results noted.

Could Mayville residents demand stronger proof?

It's Mayville testimony. It can be investigated.

A Sorries, lock and gunsmith, W. Second and Wall Sts., gave the following statement in January, 1912:

"The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backaches and when I stooped over, I had trouble in straightening up. Cold settled in my back and kidneys, too. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the trouble and my back and kidneys became as strong and well as ever."

A LASTING EFFECT

On November 14, 1916, Mr. Sorries said: "I am the same strong believer in Doan's Kidney Pills today, as when I gave my former endorsement. I haven't had any trouble with my kidneys in that time and I believe the cure they gave me will be permanent."

Mr. Sorries is only one of many Mayville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches — If your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS. The name that Mr. Sorries had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back Is Lame—Remember the Name."

REGULATIONS FOR SELECTS MODIFIED—ARMY TO GET THOSE BELOW MILITARY STANDARD

Washington, January 31.—New regulations for selective draft physical examinations were issued today by Provost Marshal General Crowder, in preparation for extension of the policy of accepting for special and limited service registrants unfit for general military duty. They will bring into the service under the next draft many men who otherwise would be exempted.

The local boards are directed to pass upon registrants for general military service only when they come within the standards of unconditional acceptance or rejection. All other cases must be referred to the Medical Advisory Board for further examination. Hereafter there will be no unconditional rejecting of men who have remedial defects.

Under the old regulations men under five feet in height were unconditionally rejected. In the future men of 58 inches, if exceptionally well proportioned, may be taken, and if not exceptionally well proportioned their cases must be referred to the Medical Board. Registrants above 78 inches, when not exceptionally well proportioned, also are to be referred to the Medical Advisory Board for classification.

The minimum weight established by the regulations is 100 pounds, unless the underweight is "plainly due to some recent illness and otherwise the registrants have no disqualifying defect," but the cases of registrants weighing between 100 and 114 pounds are to be referred to the Medical Board.

Registrants under weight in proportion to their height, unless it is plainly due to some temporary cause, also go to the Medical Board.

The Provost Marshal General announced that specific regulations and information soon are to be given to the Medical Advisory Boards concerning special and limited military service for registrants unfit for general service.

CORNS—WHAT THEY ARE AND WHAT THEY HURT

Corns, like corns, boarding-houses and late hours, are a menace to one's sweet disposition.

Corns are hard growths which occur on the toes or some other part of the feet. They are generally the result of wearing a shoe too small for the foot, says the Popular Science Monthly. They are thickenings of the outer layer of the skin in the center of which is a nail-like peg which projects downward and hurts when pressed upon. Soft corns form between the toes and are only different from others in that they are soaked with perspiration all the time. The corn itself is composed of a lump of the outer part of the skin which is caused by the pressure of the shoe at that spot. However, the corn would not result unless the pressure were taken off at intervals, and this, of course, is done when you take the shoe off. It stands to reason that if the pressure were continuously applied to this spot, the skin, instead of overgrowing at that precise point, would waste away. The overgrowth of the skin is due to the irritation produced by the pressure.

SUBMARINE FIGHTERS

Of New Type To Be Turned Out Soon
— Ford Factorily Constructing Them Rapidly, Says Secretary Daniels.

Washington, February 1.—New submarine fighters of a powerful type are about to be turned out in the United States in large numbers. After testifying yesterday before the House Naval Committee on the naval appropriation bill Secretary Daniels authorized the statement that contracts for "several scores" of the new craft have been placed with the Ford Motor Company, of Detroit. He described them as "half way between a destroyer and submarine chaser," 200 feet long, and equipped with latest discoveries for combating submarines.

All parts of the ships except the engines are to be fabricated in Detroit and the parts shipped to seaboard, where they will be assembled. Changes in the Ford plant to permit the handling of the work have progressed so swiftly, Mr. Daniels said, that deliveries on the contracts during summer are assured.

The new vessels are expected to prove far superior to the chasers now in use, including those of the 110 class. They will have steam power with a greater radius of action, will be more seaworthy and will be able to carry heavier armament. It has developed that the latest German submarines are equipped with guns that outrange those of small chasers and even some merchant ships.

Cincinnati yesterday. The boat was being repaired at the Queen City Marine Ways and was thought to be safe after most of the heavy ice had passed.

The government thermometer reg-

ABSOLUTE SAFETY

If you own a bond you should rent a PRIVATE lock box in our new, modern, fire and burglar proof vault. Keep it and all other valuables where they will not only be secure from loss by carelessness but also from dishonesty or destruction by fire or flood.

The strongest materials and the most scientific skill have gone into the making of our fortress-like vault, which is proof alike against any assault that evil-intentioned men or the forces of nature could make against it.

Whether you feel the immediate need of a safe deposit box or not, come in any way, as we will be pleased to show you the vault and explain the features of its great strength.

Private rooms are at the disposal of our patrons for the examination of their valuables.
